GUEST SPEAKERS

For 25 years Randy has been leading young adult and intergenerational teams on service/mission experiences with a focus on personal and community transformation in disadvantaged communities around the world. For the past 10 years Randy has led MB Mission, a global service/mission agency of Mennonite Brethren churches with work in over 40 countries. Randy speaks on themes of risk, sacrifice and transformation.

Randy and his wife Marjorie live in Abbotsford, BC with their two college-age children.

Scott is the US director for C2C network and serves on the executive leadership team for North America (NA). C2C network exists to be a catalyst for multiplication and church planting in NA. He is passionate about working with other denominations to train and coach church planters. Scott has authored numerous books, including Gospel Coach: Shepherding Leaders to Glorify God. He was president of Acts 29 Network for many years and served as a pastor and church planter for 33 years.

Scott and Jeannie, of Nashville, TN, have two married sons and two grandchildren.
