

What Makes a Good Question?

Credit to Mary Schaller, The 9 Arts of Spiritual Conversations

1. A good question shows other people that you want to be friends.
2. A good question often starts with one of the following words: who, what, why, and how.
3. A good question is short.
4. A good question is connected with something someone said or did.
5. A good question makes people feel safe and understood.

Think of someone you don't know well—a neighbor, someone at school, a player on your team. Write a question you could ask.
